

I am angered at this commission's willingness to allow Sinclair to air 'Stolen Honor' so close to the elections. Your act, or non-act, reconfirms my doubts that the commission, as composed, is capable of acting objectively and competently. Shame on you for making this awful and divisive time in our country even more awful and divisive. Democracy is in the balance. Shame on you.